

Gifts of Real Estate

Long-term appreciated real estate is a smart, tax-wise way to make a significant gift to benefit the American College of Sports Medicine.

How it Works: _____

- Donor transfers the deed to the property to the American College of Sports Medicine Foundation.
- The date of the gift is the date the foundation receives the fully executed deed.

Benefits: _____

- The satisfaction of making a significant gift to benefit ACSM.
- Income tax deduction for the full fair market value of the property on the date of the gift.
- Avoidance of capital gains tax.
- Avoidance of the details and problems of selling the property.
- Avoidance of gift tax.
- Reduction of taxable estate.

Benefits to ACSM: _____

- Property may be sold by the foundation and the proceeds used as donor designates.
- Property may be used by the university for its academic purposes.

Note: The correct legal name for use in all documents is: "The American College of Sports Medicine Foundation, a not-for-profit corporation organized under the laws of the state of Indiana and located in Indianapolis, Indiana."
