

AMERICAN COLLEGE of SPORTS MEDICINE
LEADING THE WAY

Honor and Citation Awards

Definitions

1. The Honor Award of the American College of Sports Medicine, (ACSM) is granted to an individual with a distinguished career of outstanding scientific and scholarly contributions to sports medicine and/or the exercise sciences. The contributions may be in the basic, applied and/or clinical sciences; allied health; and/or education. ACSM membership is not a requirement for this award.
2. The ACSM Citation Award is granted to an individual or group who has made significant and important contributions to sports medicine and/or the exercise sciences. These contributions may include, but are not limited to, research and scholarship, clinical care and/or administrative or educational services in sports medicine or exercise science. ACSM membership is not a requirement for this award.

Nomination Process

The nominator must provide the following in the nomination package:

1. The attached nomination form with the requested information.
2. A letter of nomination in which the nominator presents a compelling case. The letter should include pertinent information regarding the nominee's contributions to sports medicine, exercise science, literature, education, ACSM, other organizations and the community. Other letters of support can be included but are not required. (Maximum of three support letters, and only three will be forwarded to the review team with the nomination packets.)

Nomination Deadline

For consideration by the Awards and Tributes Committee, the nomination form and nomination letter must be received by July 18, for the following year's awards. Please send inquiries, nomination form and support letters by email to dapostolidis@acsm.org.
