ABSTRACT/POSTER COMPETITIONS

Undergraduate Abstract and Poster Competition:

Scientific abstracts submitted by undergraduate students are eligible to receive an award. The awards will be based on both the written abstract and the presentation of the poster. A panel of 4-5 judges comprised of members of the NACSM executive board will review all eligible abstracts and select the top 5-10 undergraduate scientific abstracts. During the presentation of the posters at the Spring Tutorial, the panel of judges will then judge the poster presentations of the top 5-10 abstracts. Judging of the posters will be based on both the quality of the poster and the author’s ability to effectively present their research and answers questions from the judges.

Awards:

1st place: $300

2nd place: $200

3rd place: $100

Graduate competition (President’s Choice Award/President’s Cup):

Scientific abstracts submitted by graduate students are eligible to receive an award. The awards will be based on both the written abstract and the presentation of the poster. The panel of judges for the graduate scientific abstracts includes the President Elect, Current President, and Past President of NACSM. The panel of judges will review all eligible abstracts and select the top 4-8 graduate scientific abstracts. During the presentation of the posters at the Spring Tutorial, the panel of judges will then judge the poster presentations of the top 4-8 abstracts. Judging of the posters will be based on both the quality of the poster and the author’s ability to effectively present their research and answers questions from the judges.
