1. What number president of ACSM is Dr. NiCole Keith?

2. What is unique, and long overdue, in regard to Dr. Keith’s election to the presidency of ACSM?

3. Dr. Keith has had a number of great mentors throughout her career. What can you take away from her mentee experience that could help you in your career?

4. How important do you think it was for Dr. Keith to participate in ACSM’s National Meeting? What about her involvement with ACSM’s New England Chapter? How do you think getting involved at a regional level was important for her?

5. What opportunity did Dr. Keith see for improving diversity, equity and inclusion at ACSM?

6. How can ACSM members or certified professionals address inequality and underrepresentation in health care and fitness?

7. What is the Leadership and Diversity Training Program? Have you thought about participating in it?

8. Dr. Keith speaks about how ACSM has approached diversity over the past decades. How might you approach diversity in the coming decades?

9. Dr. Keith shares what being an ACSM member means to her. What things attract you to ACSM and make you want to be a member?

10. What has ACSM done to make a commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion for the future? What do you think you can do to further this pursuit?