

Student Research Grant Winners 2019

PhD ($1,500):

Jesus Sarabia from Oklahoma State University

"Effects of sensory information on motor and somatosensory cortical activity during standing"

(Primary Mentor: Dr. Jason M. DeFreitas)

Joshua Gills from the University of Arkansas

"A one-year prospective study examining the association of modifiable risk factors on cognition in at-risk individuals"

(Primary Mentor: Dr. Michelle Gray)

Masters ($1,000):

Ashley Venturini from the University of Oklahoma

"Differences in local vs. widespread exercise induced hypoalgesia responses following a fatiguing isometric contraction to thermal stimuli"

(Primary Mentor: Dr. Chris Black)

Caleb Burruss from the University of Arkansas

"The time of day effects of smartphone usage on neck pain development and posture"

(Primary Mentor: Dr. Kaitlin Gallagher)

Undergrad ($500):

No completed applications